ASSIGNMENT & USAGE

Images from Vancouver Fashion Week 2009 Fall/Winter shows. Web resolution images are sized to 800 pixels longer dimension and come with online usage. High-resolution images are approximately 12Mp (~4000 pixels longer dimension) and come with online and print usage. For either resolution image credit is not required. Usage does not include commercial usage.

All images are processed to enhance exposure, tone, color, and saturation. Retouching to individual images is available as an option. Images are without watermark, in JPEG format (sRGB, minimum compression) and are delivered electronically as a ZIP archive.
