Self-Promotional Image Release

Docket
Location

I, Martin Krzywinski (photographer), give the participants (models, makeup/hair/wardrobe stylists, designers) of the above shoot, and their representatives or agents, permission to use images taken at the above location and date with the following conditions.

1. The images may be used only for self-promotion. Images may be used in printed or online materials produced by the participant (portfolio, web page, brochure, flyer, business card) to promote a participant's services (modeling, makeup, styling, etc). Images may not be used to promote products or services other than those of the participants. Images may not be used for advertising or commercial use in any printed media, such as magazines or periodicals, with a circulation greater than 1,000.
2. With the exception of use in print portfolios, images must be accompanied by photo credit ("Lumondo Photography").
3. Alterations to the images are permitted, but limited to global transformations (contrast, brightness, and saturation) solely for the purpose of optimization for printing and display. Other adjustments including but not limited to tone remapping, cloning, blurring, sharpening and retouching are not permitted. Photos may not be altered in any manner to imply nudity or sexual activity.

4. The images may not be used or sold, online or printed form, in any other manner not covered by paragraph (1) including, but not limited to advertisements, commercial or editorial publications, stock, websites, or galleries.

5. The images may not be used to promote any adult oriented web or print material.

Lumondo Photography retains the copyright of the images. No usage rights are granted to individuals other than the participants. Any usage that is not self-promotional requires specific and prior written permission by Lumondo Photography and each individual whose likeness and styling appears in the image.

If you have any questions about usage restrictions outlined here or require additional usage rights please contact me.
